

Preserving the Scientific Record: Preserving a Record of Environmental Change [1]

Submitted by superadmin on Wed, 2012-11-07 17:48 Overview:

This training module is part of the Federation of Earth Science Information Partners (or ESIP Federation's) Data Management for Scientists Short Course. The subject of this module is "Preserving a Record of Environmental Change." The module was authored by Matthew Mayernik from the National Center for Atmospheric Research. Besides the ESIP Federation, sponsors of this Data Management for Scientists Short Course are the Data Conservancy and the United States National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA). In this module, we will be discussing a category of the scientific record that is particularly important to preserve.
